For Solicitors/Career Management/Career Transitions

A stimulating portfolio career

The Brief

Our client, a senior leader and role model in the legal profession, wanted to create a motivating long-term future career vision for herself which would help shape the next 12 months' networking, CPD and influencing.

Our Role

We also created an impactful skills-based CV to help her achieve a non-exec role (s) as part of her portfolio career and shared time management tips to manage her multiple commitments and social media expediently.

The Result

She has created a portfolio career combining regular consultancy work with a regional law firm, a retainer with one of the big 4 management consultancies, non-executive director role, regular paid key note talks internationally and now has a speaker agent.
